

LET YOUR VOICE BE HEARD!

On June 3, representatives from The Sapphire Theatre Company are headed to Washington DC to meet personally with our members of Congress to advocate for the arts in Indiana. If the arts important to you and your family, it's time to speak up! We'll deliver your personal message to Members of Congress.

Write a message to our Indiana Congressional Representatives, and we will personally deliver it into their hands. Here are the many ways to get your message through:

- Add your name & today's date to the letter to the right and mail it to the address below. (Feel free to add your personal message in the space provided.)
- Write your own personalized letter to us and mail it to the address below.
- Send an email to mail@sapphiretheatre.com - feel free to either send your personalized message or copy the one we've created to the right. We will print these emails and add them to our messages.
- All messages must be received by May 29, 2009.

Feel free to copy this page and pass it on!

Contributions towards our cause are greatly appreciated, and tax deductible. Checks made payable to The Sapphire Theatre Company can be mailed to the address below. Thank you!

Dear Indiana Congressional Representatives,

I believe that cultivating the arts and developing the culture of Indiana are critical components for our communities to survive and thrive. Cultural organizations contribute greatly to our economy as well as our quality of life. I urge you to increase the public support for the arts in Indiana.

Sincerely,
